Pure Leucine Peptides

Explore The Benefits of Leucine Peptides

Pure Advantage Leucine Peptides provide Leucine more efficiently due to the patent-pending PepForm™ technology. Pure Advantage Leucine Peptides provide an enhanced form of L-Leucine to help increase muscle growth and recovery. Leucine Peptides are produced from Whey Protein Isolate. The long chains are broken down into the more absorbable di- and tri-peptides.

Leucine Peptides are ideal for those who are physically active and wanting to increase protein synthesis

This product can be used by a wide variety of athletes including those in CrossFit, P90X, Yoga, Zumba, the Insanity Workout or those that have physically taxing jobs such as Firefighters, Military and Police. Leucine Peptides can benefit everyone with an active lifestyle, including senior's, parents and children in sports.

Benefits of Pepform Leucine Peptides

- Promotes Lean Muscle Mass
